Qutors

We equip instructors with the information, instruction, and tools necessary to make sure that each lesson effectively conveys their IB knowledge and experience.

Our office facilitates all logistics and payment matters for a flexible experience. At Qutors, we regularly check in with our tutors and students to ensure you are receiving the support needed. In addition, we have a dedicated team who create preparation resources for you to use.

Once you choose your preferred package, we'll send you details to login to our portal and access the exam-prep plan.

Quality control: We check in personally with all of our students after their first session to make sure they are happy with their tutor and their learning experience. If they don't meet your expectations, we'll come up with a solution right away.

Note off-campus in-person tutoring rates also include compensation for the time the tutor spends travelling and can only be used within a 15 minute drive radius of Education City
